About Database Backups

How Do I Use These Backups?

The content created in this backup file allows you to easily cut and paste directly in your PHP admin software (ie. phpMyAdmin). In phpMyAdmin, click on your database then click on the SQL link at the top of the page. Just paste the contents of your backup file into the box and click the 'Go' button.

What Happens When I Do This?

All current tables will be removed then recreated using the most current structure.
All fields within each table will be recreated.
All data within each field will be re-inserted.

Usage & Recommendations

You should backup these files as often as possible. Once a day would be ideal. Should you lose your database, just import the contents of the backup file into phpMyAdmin (described above). To be on the really safe side, you should also store these backup files offline in case you lose your entire server as well as your database.
